

IT RUINS HAIR TO WASH IT WITH SOAP

Soap should be used very sparingly, if at all. If you want to keep your hair looking its best, most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary undiluted coconut oil which is pure and greaseless. It is cheaper and better than soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get multiflavored coconut oil at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

DON'TS FOR PICTURE FRAMERS

Don't have a picture framed simply because it is cute. It will have no lasting value.

Don't frame photographs, etchings and black-and-white pictures in gold.

Don't use bright gold for frames of any sort. Select the dull gold or bronze.

Don't crowd a room with pictures. Rather too few than too many.

Don't hang pictures above the level of the eye.

Don't use ornate frames on any kind of picture. The more simple the more artistic.

Don't use mats around pictures. Let the frames come up to the picture's edge.

Don't hang incongruous pictures together. Let the pictures of a room harmonize.

Don't hang a glass-covered picture so that the light from a window will make a dead glare of it.

Don't hang small pictures against figured wallpaper. The figures cut up the pictures.

Don't spot up the walls of a room with inconsequential little things that have no reason for being.

Don't fall, whatever happens, to seek for simplicity and repose in the arrangement of your walls.

Don't neglect a summer cold. A bronchial cough causes broken sleep and lowers your vitality. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound soothes and heals raw, inflamed membranes, stops tickling in throat and clears stuffy, wheezy breathing. Coughs no opiates; children like it; good for all colds, coughs, croup and bronchial affections. Sold everywhere.

Wot yer running fer, Swippy? Yer 'll get fired from the union.

Yer don't tink I'm on duty, does yer? Can't a fellow take a little recreation when he has an afternoon off?

James—Say, old man, lend me your umbrella for a few minutes?

Bonesy—Can't do it, my boy, I'm just going to return it to its owner.

SAGE TEA TURNS
GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's recipe to bring color, lustre and thickness to hair when faded, streaked or gray.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and straggly, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur restores its appearance as a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Weyl's Sage and Sulphur Compound," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Weyl's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.

EUROPEAN WAR
DISTURBANCE
CAUSE OF RAINAN OLD INDIAN SAYS THAT POISONOUS GASES IN THE AIR IS REASON

Muskogee, Okla., June 9.—That the war in Europe is the cause of floods and unusually cool weather in Oklahoma, is the statement of Chemu, a Creek medicine man, prophet and general prognosticator.

Chemu was here this week from his home in the Tullahoma hills, where he lives in a hut in the settlement of the Snakes. Through one of the interpreters of the United States Indian agency, he said:

"The heavy firing of cannon and guns that carry deadly poisonous gases has so disturbed the atmosphere that it is felt over here in Oklahoma. The disturbance has been so great that we had April weather in May and May weather in June. If the war continues long enough, it may bring about permanent change in climatic conditions here. War, food and famine go hand in hand. Nearly all the big floods in this country were in years when there has been war some place. During the time of the Boer war, this country had floods, also during the Russo-Japanese war. If fighting is intense this summer Oklahoma will have lots of rain. If not much fighting, look out for dry spells and hot winds."

Chemu cannot read, but has a son who is a graduate of a government school, who reads the daily papers to him. Down in the Tullahoma Creek settlement Chemu's predictions are taken as serious, as are the predictions of the Missouri farmers.

DEMOCRATS OPPOSE WAR,
POLL SHOWSNATIONAL LEADERS TOLD
SENTIMENT OF COUNTRY
FAVORS PEACE

Washington, June 9.—Opposition to war is strongly expressed in replies being received by the Democratic National Committee to a series of questions recently submitted to chairmen of county committees throughout the country. This statement of the situation has greatly impressed the leaders who have read some of the communications.

The executive committee of the national committee will meet here today when the result of the canvass will be made public in detail. Reports from Pennsylvania indicate a return to prosperity, a strong leaning toward President Wilson among the democrats and the prediction is generally made that if the industrial establishments are active next year the protective tariff will not figure so strongly in Pennsylvania as heretofore.

The most striking thing in the replies is the comment upon the question asking what policy had met with the most approval. The replies show that there was a general approval of the Mexican policy, "as it kept the country out of war."

PASTOR HELD ON CHARGE OF
WHITE SLAVERY

WILEY WILSON IS ARRESTED UNDER MANN LAW IN FLORIDA

(By Associated Press.)

Pensacola, Fla., June 9.—Rev. John Wiley Wilson, pastor of three churches in the vicinity of Randolph, Pontotoc county, Mississippi, today was held by a United States commissioner on a charge that he violated the Mann white slave act by having transported Miss Odell Carter from Mississippi to Florida for immoral purposes.

The minister, who has a wife and two children in Mississippi, eloped April 17, it is alleged, with Miss Carter, a member of his choir. They traveled through the country conducting revival meetings in rural communities, police say. Wilson went under the name of Rev. John Wiley and introduced his choir member as his wife. It is alleged. Today he declared that if he can settle the matter with the United States he is satisfied he can "straighten it out with the Lord."

According to the girl she became acquainted with the young minister only 10 days before the alleged elopement. Their acquaintance ripened rapidly and, police say, the girl readily agreed to elope. At midnight on April 17 the minister appeared in front of her home with a horse and carriage and she quietly crept out and joined him, it is said.

While confident that the foot and mouth disease, which has been epidemic among the live stock of the country for the last six months virtually has been wiped out. Department of agriculture officials declare that they would not relax their efforts to prevent a future recurrence of the scourge. Altogether more than 124,000 animals have been killed, because of the epidemic, at a cost of between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000, the expense of which has been shared equally by the federal and state governments.
